

Cook Forest Sawmill Center for the Arts

Where Nature Meets the Arts

Hello Vendors,

I hope this letter finds you all healthy and ready for spring. Thank you for being patient and supportive throughout our 2020 and 2021 seasons. I have started preparing for our 2022 season, so we are currently planning four festivals for the upcoming year. The decision was made, by The Board of Directors and management, not to host The Festival of Trees in December.

In addition to our festivals, the Verna Leith Theatre will be open this year and DCNR will be hosting the French and Indian War Encampment here at the Sawmill Center.

Spaces for the Cook Forest Gingerbread Tour will be offered to last year's participants first. Registration and fees are due by May 1st, 2022. After that date, any spaces available will be offered first come, first serve with payment due with registration papers. Money for all other festivals will be due 6 weeks prior to the event. We will try to honor all special requests but must do what is best for the Sawmill Center and the festival.

If you would like information about our Craft Market, please call or send an email. All information and registration forms will be available on our website by April 1st. I will be back in the office part time starting April 4th.

We are looking forward to seeing you all this season and having a successful year.

Thank you,
