

Cook Forest Sawmill Center for the Arts

Where Nature Meets the Arts

Hello Vendors,

Thank you for your support in 2023, as we had a great year, and we are looking forward to 2024. In addition to our 4 festivals we are planning, our craft market and theater will be open as well.

DCNR will be hosting the French and Indian War Encampment here at the Sawmill Center June 8th-9th. You may contact Dale Luthringer, Environmental Specialist, for Cook Forest State Park, if you are interested in participating in that event. Dale's contact information is dluthringer@pa.gov or 814-744-8407.

Indoor spaces for the Cook Forest Gingerbread Tour will be offered to last year's participants first. Again, this year, vendors will be limited to one space for the Gingerbread Tour. Registration and fees are due by May 1st, 2024. After that date, any spaces available will be offered to last year's outside vendors first, then any remaining spaces will be offered first come, first serve with payment due with registration papers.

Money for all other festivals will be due 6 weeks prior to the event. We will try to honor all special requests, but must do what is best for the Sawmill Center and the festival.

If you would like information about our Craft Market, please call or send an email. All information and registration forms will be available on our website by April 1st. I will be back in the office part time starting April 15th.

We are looking forward to seeing you all this season and having a successful year.

Thank you,

Misty Stanley
