

Cook Forest Sawmill Center for the Arts

Where Nature Meets the Arts

Hello Artists-

Thank you for your support in 2024, as we had a great year, and we are looking forward to 2025. In addition to our 4 festivals, we are planning, our craft market and theater will be open as well.

DCNR will be hosting the French and Indian War Encampment here at the Sawmill Center June 7th-8th. You may contact Dale Luthringer, Environmental Specialist at Cook Forest State Park if you are interested in participating in that event. Dales contact information is dluthringer@pa.gov or 814-744-8407.

Indoor spaces for the Cook Forest Gingerbread Tour will be offered to last year's participants first. Again, this year, vendors will be limited to one space for the Gingerbread Tour. Please NO sharing of booths. Registration and fees for 2024 participants are due by May 1st, 2025. After that date, any spaces available will be offered to last year's outside vendors first, then the remaining spaces will be offered first come, first serve with payment due with registration papers. Fees for the event will be $75 for 2024 vendors and $100 for new applicants. The fee will increase to $100 for all participants for 2026.

Money for all other festivals will be due 6 weeks prior to the event. We will try to honor all special requests but must do what is best for the Sawmill Center and the festivals.

If you would like more information about our craft market, please call or send an email. All information and registration forms will be available on our website by April 1st. I will be back in the office part time April 14th.

We are looking forward to seeing you all this season and having a successful year.

Thank you,

Misty Stanley
